

Shop Local – Think Local – Love Local

June News

Volunteers week is in June!

Volunteers week runs from Monday 3rd June through to Sunday 10th June and is the official time to thank and recognise your volunteers. I, as manager, am truly thankful to all of the volunteers at Chiddingly Shop & Café. Every volunteer is valued from those that collect produce from suppliers, to those that renew the plants on the patio or the flowers on the tables, to those that help maintain and repair the equipment within the shop, to those that keep the art wall changing every month, to those that wash aprons and napkins, to those that run classes within the shop, to those that open up, close up and work behind the counter... you are all appreciated all year around and Chiddingly Shop & Café wouldn't survive without you! Thank you everyone for continuing to support me and this community enterprise.

If you don't already volunteer but would like to, please do get in touch as it's definitely the more the merrier! At the end of April we had a volunteer social at the village hall with a short quiz, drink and nibbles. We try to have a social event twice a year so it's not all work, work, work!

Samosas and Bhajis

Lots of you will already have tasted Chloes meals from Seven Sisters' Spices – if you haven't already you really should! We are pleased to let you know that we have added her vegetable samosas and onion bhajis to our range of savoury eat in or take away food. For more information on Seven Sisters' Spices visit www.sevensistersspices.com or pop in to her kitchen next door to our shop and café.

2025 Calendar

Lastly don't forget to send us your photos of the local area for the shop calendar 2025! Send to manager@chidinglyshop.org and please include your name, a title for the photograph and which month you took the photograph in. Many thanks, Sue
